Message from Father

Dear Friends,
This Sunday holds something beautiful. We are still in the season of Easter, still living inside the joy of the Resurrection and at the same time, many of us come to Mass this morning with our mothers on our minds and in our hearts. Some of you will sit beside yours. Others will carry her memory with you. Both are a kind of gift.

The Gospel we hear today speaks gently into this. Jesus, knowing He is about to leave His disciples, does not simply say goodbye. He makes them a promise: "I will not leave you orphans." He tells them the Father will send an Advocate, the Holy Spirit, who will remain with them always. And He assures them that He Himself will come back to them not in the way they expect but in a new and deeper way.

"I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you."
I find it fitting that we hear these words on Mother's Day. A good mother does something similar: she forms us, shapes us and even when she is no longer beside us, she somehow stays. Her voice finds its way into our decisions. Her love does not simply end.

Christ's love is like this only without limit. He does not leave. He abides us and no matter what we are carrying today, He is not distant from any of it.

To all mothers and grandmothers: thank you. What you have given your families and what so many of you give to this parish family as well is a quiet and irreplaceable gift. May God bless you abundantly today and always.

I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday.

Fr. Martel

Annual Ministries Appeal

The theme this year's Annual Ministries Appeal is, "Walking in His Light as Messengers of Hope." The AMA supports vocations and seminarian formation as well as the Hispanic, Youth and Young Adult ministries of the diocese. Our goal is $11,800 and we have already received $4,045. with an additional $3,400 in pledges. Any donations in excess of our goal will be returned to our parish. Please donate online using the QR code or return your donation in an envelope found in the pews. Be sure to specify our parish in Cayucos since there are other St. Joseph parishes in the diocese. Thank you.

Plant Care

Do you like to garden? The parish has many indoor and outdoor plants in need of care. Please call the office if you would like to help in this important ministry of keeping the sanctuary, vestibule, and church yard looking beautiful.

Bishop Ramón Bejarano Biography

The Most Reverend Ramón Bejarano was born on July 17, 1969, in Seagraves, Texas, to José Bejarano and María Elena Silva. Shortly after his birth, his family returned to Aldama, Chihuahua, Mexico, where he spent his early childhood. At the age of 18, he moved with his family to Tracy, California, in the San Joaquin Valley. During this time, he worked in agricultural labor and later in hotel maintenance to support his family.

Bishop Bejarano entered seminary formation for the Diocese of Stockton at the age of 20. He completed his philosophical studies at the Archdiocesan Seminary of Tijuana and his theological studies at Mount Angel Seminary in Oregon. He was ordained to the priesthood for the Diocese of Stockton on August 15, 1998.

Following his ordination, Father Bejarano served as parochial vicar at St. George Parish in Stockton and Sacred Heart Parish in Turlock. In 2005, he was appointed founding pastor of Holy Family Parish in Modesto. He later served as pastor of St. Stanislaus Parish in Modesto from 2008 to 2019. In 2019, he was named pastor of the Cathedral of the Annunciation in Stockton.

During his priestly ministry, he served as chaplain to the Migrant Ministry and was a member of several diocesan consultative bodies, including the Presbyteral Council, the Diaconate Board, Personnel Board, the Preparatory Commission for the 2005 Diocesan Synod, and the College of Consultors.

On February 27, 2020, Pope Francis appointed him Auxiliary Bishop of San Diego and Titular Bishop of Carpi. He was ordained to the episcopacy on July 14, 2020.
