Message from a Priest

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday, the Second Sunday of Easter, the Church celebrates Divine Mercy Sunday. It is a day that reminds us of a simple but powerful truth: the mercy of God is always greater than our sins.

In the Gospel, we hear about the disciples gathered behind locked doors, filled with fear and uncertainty. Jesus comes and stands among them, and His first words are, "Peace be with you." He does not come with reproach. He comes with peace, and He gives them the gift of forgiveness. We also see Thomas, who struggles to believe, yet Jesus meets him with patience and mercy and leads him to faith.

That is the beauty of Divine Mercy. The Lord comes to us in our weakness, our doubts, and our burdens, and He does not turn away. He brings peace. He brings forgiveness. He brings us back to hope.

In that same spirit, I would like to thank all our volunteers who gave their time and energy from the beginning of Lent through the Easter Vigil, as well as those who continue to support our parish through your donations. Your generosity and service have helped our parish live this sacred season with faith and devotion, and I am deeply grateful.

I also warmly invite all of you to join us on May 10 at 10 AM, when Bishop Ramon Bejarano will celebrate Mass in our parish. His visit will be a blessing for St. Joseph Church and a joyful moment for our community. May the Risen Lord help us to trust more deeply in His mercy and to share that mercy with one another.

Fr. Martel
