Message from a Priest

Dear Parish Community,

This Sunday, the Church celebrates the Baptism of the Lord, which brings the Christmas season to a close and marks the beginning of Jesus Christ's public ministry.

At the Jordan River, Jesus enters the waters not because He needs repentance, but to stand with us in our humanity. As He is baptized, heaven opens, the Holy Spirit descends, and the Father proclaims, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." In this moment, God reveals who Jesus is and how He saves: through humility, closeness, and love.

This feast also invites us to reflect on our own baptism. Through baptism, we have been claimed by God, welcomed into the Church, and called to live as His sons and daughters. It is not only something that happened in the past, but a grace that continues to shape how we live each day.

As we enter Ordinary Time, may we remember that our faith is lived out in ordinary moments of daily life — in our families, our work, our struggles, and the quiet choices we make to live with patience, honesty, and love.

In this same spirit of baptismal discipleship, I offer my heartfelt thanks to all our parish ministries and volunteers whose faithful service helped prepare and support our Christmas and New Year celebrations. Through your dedication — in prayer, service, decorating, cleaning, and hospitality — our liturgies were welcoming and reverent. I also thank our parishioners and visitors for your generous donations to the church. Your service, presence, and generosity are living signs of the faith we have received in baptism and continue to share as one parish family.

Fr. Martel
